

Communication, Language and Literacy

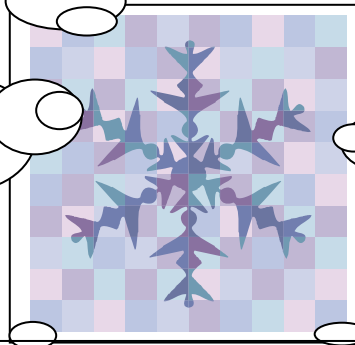

- Activities to develop hand/eye coordination
- Speaking and listening
- Learning nursery rhymes and poems
- Developing favourite stories
- Mark making
- Using reference books and ICT
- tuning in to sounds (early phonics)

Mathematical Development

- Counting
- Learning number rhymes
- Matching
- Using mathematical language to compare size
- Recognising numerals

Knowledge and Understanding of the World

- Investigating objects
- Noticing similarities and differences
- Using ICT
- Learning about foods and clothing for cold weather
- Investigating freezing and melting

Creative development

- Exploring colour and texture
- Learning rhymes and songs
- Exploring musical instruments
- Making up stories
- Using their senses

Physical Development

- Developing hand/eye coordination
- Using tools
- Putting on, fastening, taking off and hanging up their coats
- Observing the effect of activity on their bodies

Spring 2010
Nursery 2
Winter
Winter weather
Counting

Personal, Social and Emotional Development

- Making friends
- Developing confidence and independence
- Linking experiences at home and school
- Developing awareness of boundaries set